

BODY LINES

DISABILITY DANCE, MOVEMENT AND THEATRE

Body Lines is a movement and theatre workshop specifically for young people with a disability aged 8 - 25. Participants explore dance, drama, voice and storytelling to discover different forms of self-expression.

The class is taken by industry professional Margot Politis from Restless Dance Theatre - a company for performers with and without disabilities.

Workshops will run for 8 weeks on a Friday afternoon from 4:30 – 6:30 commencing on the 5th February. A performance for friends and family will take place at Shopfront on Saturday 27th and Sunday 28th March.

The Body Lines workshops are free however a non-compulsory fee of $50 would be greatly appreciated if families and participants are able to contribute.
